SCA Membership Information

1. SCA Committees meet regularly with such organizations as MSU, Building Development Services, Springfield School District, AIA and OTC to discuss and improve construction-related issues.
2. We maintain our website at www.springfieldcontractors.org with a calendar showing upcoming bid opportunities, SCA Meetings and events, board and committee meetings. The online Membership Directory is updated regularly with membership information
3. We publish the “SCA News & Views” monthly to disseminate information about the Association, our members, meetings and events along with other items of interest.
4. The printed Membership Directory is published bi-annually and is conveniently arranged by category. The Directory is not only used by SCA members, but also is available to the public.
5. We offer seminars regularly, recently covering topics such as lien waivers, quality concrete construction and practices, and OSHA regulations.
6. The Springfield Contractors Employment Service provides a central clearinghouse for applications from individuals wishing to work in construction or construction-related services. Applications are taken and filed for use by SCA members only. We cover all skills in construction-related jobs, including office personnel. We will also run blind ads for members seeking specific skills at the members’ expense, preserving confidentiality.
7. We offer many opportunities to meet your fellow SCA members and enjoy their company during social and educational gatherings including:
  - Monthly General Meetings, an opportunity to meet fellow members
  - The Pig Roast, a well-attended function of great renown
  - Annual SCA Golf Outings
  - Skeet Shoot and Sporting Clays
  - Chicken BBQ Scholarship Fundraiser
  - Salute to Design & Construction
  - Christmas Party
